

CAVIT Law Enforcement Run, Hide, Fight Event Pre-Test

If the decision is made to run, you should:

- A) Stay quiet and take the nearest exit to safety
- B) Gather as much information as you can while exiting
- C) Try and get your co-worker to follow you to safety

Where would you attack your attacker?

- A) Major muscle groups
- B) Stomach area
- C) Face

What can you expect from officers responding to the scene?

- A) Medical attention will be immediately provided to the injured.
- B) Everyone will be evacuated from the building prior to searching for the attacker.
- C) They will be giving you forceful orders and attempting to locate the attacker.

What do you believe you would do in an active shooter situation at work?

- A) Run
- B) Hide
- C) Fight

If the decision to fight is made, you should:

- A) Use improvise improvised weapons
- B) Catch them by surprise
- C) Get multiple people together
- D) All the above

What is the difference between concealment and cover?

- A) They are basically the same thing.
- B) Cover hides you, while concealment protects you from gunfire.
- C) Concealment hides you, while cover stopped a bullet.
- D) Cover and concealment both protect you from gunfire.

What is the first responders main responsibility when they first arrive on scene?

- A) Give aid to the wounded
- B) Search for the threat
- C) Secure the perimeter
- D) Lead survivors out of the building

Once you are outside the building, what is the next step for you to get everyone else safe?

- A) Walk around the building and see if you see any co workers inside.
- B) Stand by the back door and wait for other co workers to come out.
- C) Find a safe place either behind a dumpster or bush and call the police if possible.

When the responding officer and or officers arrive on the scene, you should?

- A) Run to them for protection
- B) Scream to inform them where you are
- C) Stay where you are and do not interfere
- D) Run to the nearest exit, everything is safe when they arrive

If the active shooter is closing in on your hiding spot you should

- A) Run for the nearest exit
- B) Scream for help
- C) Beg him to spare you
- D) Stay calm, silent, and get ready to fight.

KEY:

B

C

C

A, B, C (ALL ARE CORRECT)

D

C

B

C

C

D